Our Journal recommends and adheres to Vancouver style for Reference listing

For the complete guide to the Vancouver Style, please consult this online book: Citing Medicine, 2nd ed. <http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/books/bv.fcgi?rid=citmed.TOC&depth=2>

you can also refer to the following

(i) In text citations: (citing of references in the manuscript text)

- Superscript without any square or round brackets should be used to cite the reference in the text after full stop or periods or before any colons or semi colons.

Example :

-preferred option.³
-preferred option³ ;
- For citing more than one reference at a time, cite each reference number separated by a comma, or by a dash for a sequence of consecutive numbers. There should be no spaces between commas or dashes For example: 1,5,6-8.
- The original number used for a reference is reused each time the reference is cited

(ii) References: (Listing of references under the section “References”)

- Full citations should be listed in numerical order and in the same order in which they are cited in text under sub title – REFERENCES at the end of your manuscript.
- Abbreviate Journal titles in the style used in the NLM catalog. Click here to visit the NLM catalog

(4). WEBSITES

- Citing website requires the “Place of Publication”, the “Publisher” and the “Original Publication Date” as part of the citation. If these pieces of information are not given, use: [place unknown], [publisher unknown] or [date unknown].
- Author names should be listed in the order they appear on the website.
- Reproduce the title of a homepage as closely as possible to the wording on the screen.
- Place the word Internet in square brackets following the title (and content type if present)
- Place of publication is defined as the city where the homepage is published. If place, publisher, date unknown use [place unknown].
- Publisher is defined as the individual or organization issuing the homepage.
- Use the date of publication as the date the page was first published on the internet, always give the year.
- Include the date that you saw the page on the internet.
- Begin with the phrase "Available from". Insert the URL in its entirety. End with a period only if the URL ends with a slash, otherwise end with no punctuation
- For a more detailed guide to referencing website information please consult: Patrias K. Citing medicine: the NLM style guide for authors, editors, and publishers [Internet]. 2nd ed. Wendling DL, technical editor. Bethesda (MD): National Library of Medicine (US); 2007 [updated 2009 Oct 21; cited 2010 Jan 8]. Available from: <http://www.nlm.nih.gov/citingmedicine>
